Meeting Agenda

1/28/09
7 PM

- I. Guests
- II. Roll call
- III. President – Kabir Seth
 - VPs go over their committees:
 - VP Risk Committee: duties this semester will be working on getting chapters disaster prepared and fine tuning the Greek social code to get it passed. It will be a good opportunity to have fun and have your voice heard.
 - VP Programming Committee: prepare and plan for Greek-wide events. Event this semester will consist of Warriors Night and other fun events.
 - VP External Committee: committee will allow for delegates to provide input about which organizations to reach out to and methods to better publicize the Greek system. In addition, there will be major steps taken to improve the structure and distribution of the Greek newsletter.
 - VP Internal Committee: IFC constitution and bylaws will be revised to be more relevant to the current reality of Greek life. Food choices for meeting will also be discussed.
 - VP External Committee: there will be discussions about reaching out to Greek alumni and getting them into speaking to freshmen about the virtues of the Greek system next semester. In addition, there will be planning towards a rush seminar that can be instrumental in helping chapters recruit.
 - We will be doing paintball this semester as a way for delegates to get to know each other.
- IV. VP of Internal Affairs – Alex Van Zant
 - a) Budget to be voted on next delegates meeting
- V. VP of Risk – Omead Barari

VI. VP of External Affairs – Jeremiah Douglas

- Go to your chapters and find out if they would like an event publicized throughout the Greek community so that VP External can go through and formally publicize the event in the Greek newsletter.

VII. VP of Recruitment – Andrew Patton

- a) Logistics of getting speakers to promote Greek life in dorms during Fall Rush
 - There will be a webinar recruiting item for chapters on Feb. 13th that will be helpful in providing successful recruitment tactics. If this seminar is judged to be effective, next semester a full in-person seminar will be ordered.

VIII. VP of Programming – Shaun Lacey

- a) Warrior's Night
 - Will be on Feb. 4th at 7:30.
 - Make sure to let your chapters know about this event and turn in money for tickets to the Office of Student Life and Leadership.
 - Lots of sorority girls are going, so it will be a good time to interact with members of the Greek community and meet new people.
 - Tickets are only $20 (includes transportation as well).

IX. Assistant Risk Manager – Anthony James Wright

X. Academic Achievements Officer – Jon Ida

- Inform scholarship chairs that they will be contacted about the awarding of academic-based scholarships this semester including best GPA and most improved GPA.

XI. Service Officer – Marty Cunnie

XII. Advisor – Jamie Thompson

- a) Register for Leadership Symposium (<http://www.ocf.berkeley.edu/~leadsymp/>). Conference is Saturday, January 31st.
 - This event is $10 per person, website link is provided here.
- b) Complete and return 2009 University Recognition Agreements to 102 Sproul Hall by January 30th at 4:00 pm
 - All chapter presidents need to turn this in.
- c) Read Weekly Email
 - There is info about many events, programs, and news that may be helpful for members of the Greek community. Please let Alex Van Zant know if you would like to receive these emails at ifc.internal@calgreeks.com.
- d) Welcome back!
 - This past weekend, there was an incident involving a member of a campus fraternity. There is currently police investigations occurring and the incident involves a fraternity that is not recognized by IFC and is considered to be a street gang. This event occurred to a member of Phi Delta Theta, so it is important that we support the chapter and make sure to make no comments about this incident.
